

2,960 INDIGENOUS PEOPLE SUPPORTED

72% OF POPULATION NOW WITHIN ONE HOUR OF MEDICAL CARE

COMMUNITY INCOME BOOSTED BY 40%

77% OF CHILDREN IN IMPROVED SCHOOLS

100,000 ACRES SAVED BY OVO

2015

2014

2013

2012

2011

2010

2009

KEY
	Livelihoods
	Forest Protection
	Education
	Community Empowerment
	Health

60% drop in malaria from provision of mosquito nets

55 lives saved by emergency evacuation

679 villagers have protein lunches

92 families now have clean water

Medical Outpost built in Parijaro

Clean water supply for Coveja village

2 fishponds dug for Coveja and Tivoreni village

Medical outposts built for 3 villages

Meeting houses built in 5 villages

Micro-credit fund across 9 villages

Solar radio communications installed in 2 villages

Outboard motor canoe for Saboroshiari

Clean water supply for Cutivireni

Emergency relief for flood victims

4 villages equipped with outboard motor canoes for medical emergencies

11 more villages join the project

Cool Earth partners with Cutivireni

Half a tonne of coffee produced

4 tonnes of cacao exported to chocolatiers

2 solar dryers and 3 cacao stores built

Coffee technician employed and seedlings planted in 6 villages

Membership of Ayompari doubles and 68% of cooperative members see income uplift

3 solar cacao dryers built

Cacao consultant employed

Scholarships for study in Satipo

OVO's saved forest larger than Bristol

Rebuilding Camantavishi school after flooding

Peru adopts the Cool Earth model

Boarding rooms for students at Cutivireni School

Camantavishi and Parijaro schools supported

Establish cacao cooperative "Ayompari"

Half a tonne of coffee produced

New school for Parijaro

3 scholarships for study in Atalaya

New school in Saboroshiari and 5 primary schools supported

New school buildings for 2 villages

OVO saves its 16 millionth tree

26 million tonnes of CO<sub>2</sub> locked in by OVO

Oviri community joins the project

Community members attend COP20 Lima

Partner villages increase to 15